KINGSGATE GOES FOR GOLD

Kingsgate Consolidated Ltd (ASX:KCN) has been confirmed as the exclusive Gold Sponsor for the 2024 Australian Gold Conference.

“Kingsgate is proud to sponsor the only conference focused on Australia’s gold industry, which brings together all aspects of the precious metals sector,” Managing Director and CEO of Kingsgate, Jamie Gibson said.

“The opportunity to enhance and extend a conference of this calibre to more Australians and global investors goes hand in hand with Kingsgate’s strategy as we build the next chapter in our company’s 40-year history.”

The 2024 conference will bring together bullion companies, precious metals dealers, prospectors, miners, explorers and producers as well as the investment community at Crown Sydney from the 26-28 August 2024.

“The founder of Kingsgate, the late Gavin Thomas, was a brilliant geologist and passionate advocate for the gold industry,” acknowledged Kerry Stevenson, Australian Gold Conference Founder and CEO. “Already, his spirit lives on with our annual ‘Gavin Thomas Mining Award’ which is now in its tenth year. Kingsgate’s new partnership further builds on this legacy.”

Kingsgate will join the board of advisers assisting the development of the agenda and Australian Gold Conference strategic direction.
