PRESS REPORTS RE AMAYAPAMPA GOLD PROJECT

In response to overnight international press reports from Bolivian-based newspapers, the Company confirms that work at the Amayapampa Gold Project ('Project') continues as usual, with the 255-strong workforce employed in the continuing surface sampling programme and various roadwork projects in and around the mine.

The Socialisation process for the Project is continuing with a meeting held near the mine today chaired by senior Government officials.

Yours faithfully
