STIRLING APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR

Stirling Resources Limited (ASX: SRE) advises it has appointed Nigel Goodall as Non-Executive Director.

Mr. Goodall has 40 years experience in the mining and resource industry covering operations, project design and development, marketing and general management. Holding a degree in Mineral Processing from London University and an MBA from University of Western Australia, he has worked in coal, copper, gold, tin, iron ore and mineral sands. Over the past 20 years, Mr Goodall has been the principal of a small consulting company that has developed an extensive client list ranging from major national and multinational companies to small business.

Stirling's Chairman, David Nabarro, said "We are very pleased that Nigel has accepted a position on Stirling's Board. His wide ranging experience in the mining industry will be of great value and will add further depth of technical and commercial expertise."
