Freelancer wins four Stevie Awards in the 11th Annual International Business Awards

Freelancer Limited (ASX:FLN) today announced it has been recognised for excellence in the international business community winning four International Business awards across four categories. Freelancer has been awarded;

- Website of the Year, Business Services – Gold Stevie Winner
- Executive of the Year, Business Services – Silver Stevie Winner
- App of the Year, Business Services – Silver Stevie Winner
- Company of the Year, Business Services – Bronze Stevie Winner

The International Business Awards are the world's premier business awards program. All individuals and organisations worldwide – public and private, for-profit and non-profit, large and small - are eligible to submit nominations. The 2014 IBAs received entries from more than 60 nations and territories.

More than 3,500 nominations from organisations of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted this year for consideration. The winners were selected by more than 250 executives worldwide who participated in the judging process from May through early August.

Commenting on the awards, Freelancer's CEO and Chairman Matt Barrie said, "Freelancer.com celebrates this recent achievement with its community of more than 12 million freelancers and entrepreneurs from around the globe who prove that businesses and professionals can build strong and lasting partnerships, wherever they may be. Receiving this recognition from the International Business Awards for the third year in a row motivates the Freelancer.com team to persevere in our mission to transform the way the world works."
