PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT UPDATE ON FLEXIROAM X

Flexiroam Limited (ASX: FRX) is proud to launch an updated version of the Flexiroam X app. The updated app boasts a completely revamped design and contains exciting new features that will enhance user experience as well as continuing to provide cheap data usage in more than 100 countries around the world.

Signing up and login has been simplified with Google and Facebook logins. This enhancement will speed up the login process, making it easier for Flexiroam users through a simple one-click action, with no password requirements.

Flexiroam members can monitor the status of their Flexiroam X conveniently on the new status page which displays their Flexiroam X connection status, the country and partner network's name. Via the connection status page, members can roam with assurance that they are connected to Flexiroam X instead of their home carrier.

The update will also pave the way for the consolidation of the voice app and Flexiroam X into a single app.
