TBH New Management Appointments

The Board of The BetMakers Holdings Limited (ASX:TBH) (“TBH”, the “Company”) is pleased to announce two new senior management appointments.

Mr. Anthony Pullin has joined the Company as Chief Financial Officer and brings a wealth of experience, having worked in finance across the banking sector and for leading investment funds and private equity firms. Mr. Pullin has worked within private equity for the last 8 years, holding positions as Finance Director, Investment Principal and Non-Executive Director. Prior to this he was working with KPMG Sydney. He is a member of the Chartered Accountants Australia & New Zealand, and holds strong knowledge of financial reporting, business operations and corporate governance matters both in Australia and internationally.

Mr. Jake Henson has been promoted within the Company to Chief Operating Officer following his roles as Head of Operations and Head of Business Development since March 2014. Mr. Henson has been a key member of TBH for more than 4 years and holds 10 years’ experience in the sports and wagering industries. Most recently he has overseen the integration of the Company’s acquisitions, DynamicOdds and Global Betting Services, within the TBH business as well as introducing these end-to-end product offerings to TBH clients.

The Board would also like to advise that Paul Jeronimo has left the Company after 3 years in the role of Chief Financial Officer and 7 years of involvement with the Company. Mr. Jeronimo has played a significant part in TBH’s development and the Company would like to thank him for his commitment and service and wish him every success for the future.
