14 View Street
NORTH PERTH WA 6006

Your Vote Is Important

Voting In Person

To vote in person, attend the Annual General Meeting on the date and at the place set out above.

Voting By Proxy

To vote by proxy, please complete and sign the enclosed Proxy Form and return by the time and in accordance with the instructions set out on the Proxy Form.

New sections 250BB and 250BC of the Corporations Act came into effect on 1 August 2011 and apply to voting by proxy on or after that date. Shareholders and their proxies should be aware of these changes to the Corporations Act, as they will apply to this Annual General Meeting. Broadly, the changes mean that:

- if proxy holders vote, they must cast all directed proxies as directed; and
- any directed proxies which are not voted will automatically default to the Chair, who must vote the proxies as directed.

Further details on these changes is set out below.

Proxy vote if appointment specifies way to vote

Section 250BB(1) of the Corporations Act provides that an appointment of a proxy may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution and, if it does:

- the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed); and

- if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution the proxy must not vote on a show of hands; and
- if the proxy is the chair of the meeting at which the resolution is voted on the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way (i.e. as directed); and
- if the proxy is not the chair the proxy need not vote on the poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed).

Transfer of non-chair proxy to chair in certain circumstances

Section 250BC of the Corporations Act provides that, if:

- an appointment of a proxy specifies the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution at a meeting of the Company's members; and
- the appointed proxy is not the chair of the meeting; and
- at the meeting, a poll is duly demanded on the resolution; and
- either of the following applies:
 - the proxy is not recorded as attending the meeting;
 - the proxy does not vote on the resolution,

the chair of the meeting is taken, before voting on the resolution closes, to have been appointed as the proxy for the purposes of voting on the resolution at the meeting.

DATED: 26 OCTOBER 2011

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD

DEBORAH AMBROSINI
DIRECTOR AND COMPANY SECRETARY

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Explanatory Statement has been prepared for the information of the Shareholders in connection with the business to be conducted at the Annual General Meeting to be held at 10:30am (WST) on Wednesday 23 November 2011 at 14 View Street, North Perth, Western Australia.

This purpose of this Explanatory Statement is to provide information which the Directors believe to be material to Shareholders in deciding whether or not to pass the Resolutions in the Notice of Meeting.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND REPORTS

In accordance with the Constitution, the business of the Annual General Meeting will include receipt and consideration of the annual financial report of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2011 together with the declaration of the Directors, the Directors report, the remuneration report and the auditor s report.

The Company will not provide a hard copy of the Company s annual financial report unless specifically requested to do so, Shareholders may view the Company annual financial report on its website at www.bphenergy.com.au.

1. RESOLUTION 1 ADOPTION OF REMUNERATION REPORT

1.1 General

The Corporations Act requires that at a listed company s annual general meeting, a resolution that the remuneration report be adopted must be put to the shareholders. However, such a resolution is advisory only and does not bind the Directors or the Company.

Under recent changes to the Corporations Act which came into effect on 1 July 2011, if at least 25% of the votes cast on Resolution 1 are voted against adoption of the Remuneration Report at the Annual General Meeting, and then again at the Company's 2012 annual general meeting, the Company will be required to put to Shareholders a resolution proposing the calling of an extraordinary general meeting to consider the appointment of directors of the Company (Spill Resolution).

If more than 50% of Shareholders vote in favour of the Spill Resolution, the Company must convene the extraordinary general meeting (Spill Meeting) within 90 days of the Company's 2012 annual general meeting. All of the Directors who were in office when the Company's 2012 Directors' report was approved, other than the managing director of the Company, will cease to hold office immediately before the end of the Spill Meeting but may stand for re-election at the Spill Meeting. Following the Spill Meeting those persons whose election or re-election as Directors is approved will be the Directors of the Company.

The remuneration report sets out the Company s remuneration arrangements for the Directors and senior management of the Company. The remuneration report is part of the Directors report contained in the annual financial report of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2011.

A reasonable opportunity will be provided for discussion of the remuneration report at the Annual General Meeting.

1.2 Proxy Restrictions

Pursuant to the Corporations Act, if you elect to appoint the Chair, or another member of Key Management Personnel whose remuneration details are included in the Remuneration Report or any Closely Related Party of that member as your proxy to vote on this Resolution 1, you must direct the proxy how they are to vote. Where you do not direct the Chair, or another member of Key Management Personnel whose remuneration details are included in the Remuneration Report or Closely Related Party of that member on how to vote on this Resolution 1, the proxy is prevented by the Corporations Act from exercising your vote and your vote will not be counted in relation to this Resolution 1.

2. RESOLUTION 2 AND 3 RE-ELECTION OF DIRECTOR MR GOH HOCK AND DEBORAH AMBROSINI

Clause 13.2 of the Constitution requires that one third of the Directors for the time being, or if their number is not a multiple of 3, then the number nearest to one-third (rounded upwards in case of doubt), shall retire from office, provided always that no Director (except a managing director) shall hold office for a period in excess of 3 years, or until the third annual general meeting following his or her appointment, whichever is the longer, without submitting himself or herself for re-election.

The Directors to retire at an annual general meeting are those who have been longest in office since their last election, but, as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by drawing lots.

A Director who retires by rotation under clause 13.2 of the Constitution is eligible for re-election.

The Company currently has 4 Directors and accordingly 2 must retire.

Mr Goh Hock and Deborah Ambrosini, the Directors longest in office since their last election, retire by rotation and seek re-election.

3. RESOLUTION 4 AMENDMENT TO COMPANY CONSTITUTION

The Company intends to amend its Constitution to insert the proposed Clause 36 Partial Takeover Plebiscites as set out in Annexure A to this Notice.

As a consequence, the Corporations Act requires the Company to provide shareholders with an explanation of the proposed proportional takeover approval provisions as set out below so that members may make an informed decision on the proposed inclusion of the proposed proportional takeover provisions in the Company's Constitution.

3.1 What is a proportional takeover bid?

A proportional takeover bid or offer is a takeover offer sent to all members being the holders of securities within a particular a class of securities of the Company, but only in respect of a specified portion of each member's securities in the Company. Accordingly, if a member accepts in full the offer under a proportional takeover bid, the member will dispose of the specified portion of their securities in the Company and retain the balance of the securities. This means that control of the Company may pass without members having the chance to sell all their securities to the bidder. It also means the bidder may take control of the Company without paying an adequate amount for gaining control.

3.2 Effect of the provisions to be inserted

If inserted, in the event that a proportional takeover offer is made to members of the Company, the Board will be required to convene a meeting of members to vote on a resolution to approve the proportional takeover offer (Approving Resolution). That meeting must be held the 14th day before the offer under the proportional takeover bid closes.

The resolution will be taken to have been passed if the proportion that the number of votes in favour of the prescribed resolution bears to the total number of votes on the prescribed resolution is greater than one half, excluding the securities of the bidder and its associates. The vote is decided on a simple majority. Each person who, as at the end of the day on which the first offer under the bid was made, held bid class securities is entitled to vote. However, the bidder and its associates are not allowed to vote.

The Directors will breach the Corporations Act if they fail to ensure the Approving Resolution is voted on. However, if no resolution is voted on before the end of the 14th day before the close of the offer, the Approving Resolution will be deemed to have been passed.

Where the Approving Resolution is passed or deemed to have been passed, transfers of securities resulting from accepting the takeover offer will be registered provided they otherwise comply with the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules, the Settlement Operating Rules and the Company's Constitution. If the Approving Resolution is rejected, then in accordance with the Corporations Act, the takeover offer will be deemed to be withdrawn.

The decision of the Company's shareholders on the Approving Resolution will be binding on all individual members.

The proposed proportional takeover approval provisions do not apply to full takeover bids and only apply for three years after the date of adoption of the provisions. The provisions may be renewed, but only by a special resolution.

3.3 Reasons for proposing the resolution

The Directors consider that members should have the opportunity to include the proportional takeover approval provisions in the Constitution. Without the inclusion of such provisions, a proportional takeover bid for the Company may enable effective control of the Company to be acquired without members having the opportunity to dispose of all of their securities to the bidder. Accordingly, members could be at risk of passing control to the bidder without payment of an adequate control premium for all their securities whilst leaving themselves as part of a minority interest in the Company.

The proposed provisions deal with this possibility by providing that if a proportional takeover bid is made for securities in the Company, members must vote on whether or not a proportional takeover bid should be permitted to proceed.

The benefit of the provision is that members are able to decide collectively whether the proportional takeover offer is acceptable in principle, and it may ensure that any partial offer is appropriately priced.

3.4 No knowledge of present acquisitions proposals

As at the date of this Notice of Meeting, no Director is aware of a proposal by any person to acquire, or to increase the extent of, a substantial interest in the Company.

3.5 Potential advantages and disadvantages for the members and the directors of the Company

The Directors consider that inserting proportional takeover approval provisions will benefit all members in that they will have an opportunity to consider a proportional takeover bid and then attend or be represented by proxy at a meeting of members called specifically to vote on the proposal. Accordingly, members will be able to prevent a proportional takeover bid proceeding if there is sufficient support for the proposition that control of the Company should not be permitted to pass under the proportional takeover bid. The provisions may also help members avoid being locked in as a minority with one majority member. In addition, increasing the bargaining power of members may ensure that any partial offer is adequately priced. Furthermore, knowing the view of members assists each individual member in assessing the likely outcome of the proportional takeover bid and whether to accept or reject that bid.

As to the possible disadvantages to members of inserting a proportional takeover approval provisions, it may be argued that the proposal makes a proportional takeover bid more difficult and that such proportional takeover bids will therefore be discouraged. The chance of a proportional takeover bid being successful may be reduced. In turn, this may reduce the opportunities which members may have to sell all or some of their securities at a premium to persons seeking control of the Company and may reduce any takeover speculation element in the Company's share price. Such a provision may also be considered an additional restriction on the ability of individual members to deal freely in their securities.

On balance, the Directors consider that the possible advantages outweigh the possible disadvantages such that insertion of proportional takeover approval provisions is in the interests of members.

While the insertion of Clause 36 will allow the Directors to ascertain members views on a proportional takeover bid, it does not otherwise offer any advantage or disadvantage to the Directors who remain free to make their own recommendation as to whether the proportional takeover bid should be accepted.

3.6 Directors Recommendation

The Board recommends that members vote in favour of Resolution 4. Each Director intends to vote all the Shares controlled by him or her in favour of the resolution.

If this resolution is approved, the proportional takeover approval provisions will be inserted into the Constitution and will take effect from the date of the Meeting.

4. ENQUIRIES

Shareholders are required to contact Deborah Ambrosini, the Company Secretary on +61 8 9328 8477 if they have any queries in respect of the matters set out in these documents.
